

CEUS Visitor “To Do” List AFTER ARRIVAL in Bloomington

- Check in at Central Eurasian Studies Department (CEUS) to introduce yourself.

Central Eurasian Studies Department
Global & International Studies Building
355 N. Jordan Ave. #3024
812-855-2233

Bring with you:

- Personal Profile Form (PS) <http://www.indiana.edu/~uhrs/pubs/forms/hrms/ps.pdf> that shows past work experience and education. It’s okay to attach a CV.

- Check in at IU International Services (OIS) within 7 days of arrival.

IU International Services must validate your arrival information in the US Student & Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) or your visa program may become invalid and you cannot remain in the US.

Office of International Services
Poplars Building 221
400 East 7th Street
Monday/Tuesday/Wednesday/Friday 8:30am-4:30pm
Thursday 9:00am-4:30pm
ois@indiana.edu
Telephone: 812-855-9086

Take with you: Passport; visa; I-94 form; DS-2019 visa document.

NOTES:

- As soon as possible, give OIS your IU e-mail address so you can receive important information for visa holders during your stay in the US.
- Monitor the International Services website for updates and instructions.
- To maintain your visa status, promptly notify OIS of changes to be entered into the US Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) tracking system. This includes but is not limited to changes of address, intent to travel outside the US, and departure dates from the US. Contact OIS if you have questions.

- Visa visitors must attend an orientation session at the IU Office of International Services. Orientations are offered Fridays at 9:30am at Poplars Building 221.

- Get an Indiana University photo identification card (IU Crimson Card)

Support Center at Wells Library Learning Commons (first floor; west tower)

CardService at Indiana Memorial Union room M090 (or M089)

<https://crimsoncard.iu.edu/>

Take with you: Government-issued photo ID (International visitors should bring a passport) and your Indiana University ID number. You’ll be asked to complete an ID application form.

The IU Crimson Card also functions as a city bus pass. IU pays Bloomington Transit for each ride by faculty, scholars and staff. There’s no charge to IU if you use an IU Crimson ID card. Campus Bus is always free – no ID card needed.

Visiting Research Scholars should show the Crimson Card to Wells Library Circulation Desk staff to insure book check-out privileges equal to faculty.
